NEWS NOTES.

Winchester has over 40 cases of typhoid fever.

Dr. John D. O'Brien dropped dead at Hopkinsville.

Two persons died from the bite of spiders at Muncie, Ind.

Twenty-nine grain ships are tied up by the strike at San Francisco.

Samuel Levy, a former Cincinnati, was driven to suicide by asthma.

John Meagher shot and killed W. J. McNamara in a Lexington saloon.

Three million admissions to the Pan-American Exposition have been registered.

Russia is facing another great famine in a district populated by 43,000,000 people.

George H. Phillips, the corn king of Chicago, has been forced into bankruptcy.

Policeman John Schroeder was killed by a live wire on the streets of Cincinnati.

A bridge greater than the Eads bridge at St. Louis is to span the Missouri river at Kansas City.

Eight hundred representatives of the Louisville Commercial Club took in the Lexington fair Saturday.

Kurds burned 12 villages in Armenia, butchered the males and carried the young girls off to the harems.

Benj. F. Alford, former surveyor of the Port of Louisville, was run over and injured by a grocery wagon.

A mob which gathered to hang three men confined in the jail at Flemingsburg, were bluffed by the guards.

Rear Admiral Schley says that he cannot attend the Louisville Conclave on account of the court of inquiry.

Linemen employed by the Cumberland Telephone Company in Louisville threaten to strike if their wages are not increased.

Rather than accede to the demand of his miners for an eight-hour day, Senator Clark has closed his copper mine, which brings a revenue of $12,000,000 yearly.

William Sears, a coal miner, shot and killed Robert Harrison, bank boss of the National Coal and Iron Company's mine at Straight Creek, near Pineville.

The report of the superintendent of the army transport service will show that about $20,000,000 has been expended by the government of the United States for this purpose.

A four-year-old son of Dennis Lucas, at St. Marys, W. Va., while playing with matches, set fire to the cradle in which his baby brother was asleep and burned the infant to death.

The United States Investment Company, a Lexington concern that promises to pay $3 for $1, won a favorable decision in a tax controversy before the treasury department at Washington.

The coal mine operators of the Jellico district, declined to enter into a wage scale conference with the operators from the Cincinnati Southern division and withdrew from the meeting in Knoxville.

The damages caused by the Gulf storm are not as great as at first reported. The L. & N. has succeeded in getting its trains out of New Orleans and telegraphic communication has been established.

Among the eldest of the Confederates assembled at Lexington Confederate day, were Dr. Hall, of Maysville, in his 92d year, and Col. Thomas Johnson, of Mt. Sterling, in his 90th year, both of Gen. Humphrey Marshall's command.

Five persons were killed outright and 10 others seriously injured in Chicago by a collision between a trolley car and passenger train. In Brooklyn six people were killed and 20 or more injured by a collision between a locomotive and a trolley car.

Suits for the recovery of sums aggregating $13,000, alleged to have been withdrawn from the endowment fund, Knights of Pythias, were filed in the circuit court at Chicago by the supreme lodge of the order against John A. Hines, former president of the board of control, and Henry B. Stolte, former secretary of the body.

The employees of the Bay View plant of the Illinois Steel Company have decided to cast their fortunes with the striking steel workers, and this news, together with the fact that the Riverside men at Wheeling had voted to quit work, awakened new enthusiasm in the ranks of the Amalgamated Association, whose members now declare that they have hopes of inducing the South Chicago workmen to reconsider their action.

There is a move on foot among the fox hunters of the United States to establish a permanent hunting reservation in the vicinity of Estill Springs, at Irvine, Estill county, this State. The plan is to purchase a suitable tract of native forest land, which can be had at a nominal figure, inclose it with a high fence and there breed and train "Reynard" for the exclusive purpose of the chase. The plan further contemplates the erection of a club-house, stables for horses, a kennel for dogs, boat-house and other necessary adjuncts.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Lutes & Co. sold to S. Morgan a load of hogs at 5c.

W. M. Myers sold to Fox & Logan a family mare for $100.

FOR SALE—8 nice Southdown hucks. C. C. Carpenter, Hustonville.

We want 20 head of strictly choice 600-pound yearling cattle. Lutes & Co.

J. K. Baughman bought of Gus McCormack 400 barrels of corn at $1.60 in field.

James Gentry sold to J. A. Shuttleworth his farm, in Boyle of 205 acres for $20,000.

Registered Berkshire boar, strictly fine, for sale. R. H. Crow, Shelby City, Ky.

Sheep belonging to J. A. Nooe, Jas. Voris and John Burgin, of Boyle, were killed by dogs.

Season money is now due and I will appreciate it if you will settle at once. M. S. Baughman.

Asacoda beat Prince Alert in a pacing race at Brighton, going the second heat in 2:04.

Safe family horse, not afraid of cars, bicycles or anything, for sale. R. H. Crow, Shelby City.

It is now estimated that Georgia's cotton crop this year will amount to over a million bales.

August Belmont's Masterman won the $10,000 United States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga Saturday.

The peach crop of the country is estimated at 75,000,000, a bushel for each man, woman and child in the United States.

C. R. Martin sold to D. N. Prewitt nine 700-pound steers at 3c and to Bruce & Bright 100 barrels of new corn at 83.

DANVILLE COURT—There were few cattle and fewer people at Danville court yesterday and the day was a dull one. Several mules changed hands at $100 to $140. Horses were dull.

James Devine, of Mercer, planted broom corn in a field next to sorghum and raised what farmers call a "mule," that is the broom corn and sorghum is so mixed that both are worthless.

Stamboul, 2:07, owned by E. H. Harriman, of Goshen, N. Y., is dead. He sold for $50,000 once and Mr. Harriman paid $41,000 for him. He had 40 trotters with records of 2:11 to 2:30 to his credit.

George Crow, of Hustonville, tells the Lexington Democrat that corn is selling at $1.50 in his section. George is a little off on the prices of farm products since a certain young lady went West.

Notwithstanding the high price of corn mules are in demand. There were four buyers at the Liberty fair and all of them got several. They were Fox & Logan, Danville, C. T. Bohon, Hustonville, and R. L. Hubble, of this county.

John Owsley Reid, son of Dr. Hugh Reid, received from I. N. Barker, the noted breeder of Berkshire hogs at Thornton, Ind., Saturday, a fine young boar. John Owsley is fond of hogs and he is determined to have some very fine ones.

Col. J. P. Chandler, the clever auctioneer, gives in the following report of the sale of the late J. T. O'Hair's effects: Horses $55 to $80, cows, $15 to $30, farming implements and household goods sold well. A good crowd was present.

Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, has purchased from P. H. Parrish, Midway, a three-year-old filly, Mary P. Leyburn, for $10,000. She won the first heat of the Lexington Trotting Futurity as a two-year-old in 2:21 and worked this year in 2:15.

C. E. Miller, who was here from Illinois the other day, advised his brothers-in-law, J. C. and M. B. Eubanks, to hold their hay for better prices. He says the crop is very short in his State and the West generally and he believes it will go to $20 per ton before long.

W. W. Lyon & Co. took the following premiums at the Liberty fair: Three-year-old harness mare, combined mare or gelding, saddle mare three years old, saddle mare four years old, draft horse, yearling mule, walk-trot mare and certificates on harness mare four years old, pair mares, sweepstake saddle mare and two-year-old mule.

Col. J. P. Chandler, who cried the sale of the late Dr. E. M. Estes' effects, hands us the following report: Wheat 65c, oats 45c, hay 65c per hundred, straw $2.90 per thousand, cows and calves $20 to $30, calves $10, sheep $1.40. Horses and farming implements sold well. Stock in the Middleburg & Liberty pike brought $5.25. The crowd was good considering the wet day.

IT SAVED HIS BABY.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams, Ore. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Craig & Hooker, druggists.

Boyle National Bank stock sold at $158.50 yesterday.

MIDDLEBURG.

A good crowd attended the Liberty fair from here Friday despite the very inclement weather.

Mrs. MacD. Royalty is visiting relatives in Lexington. William Cullen Bryant has returned from Chattanooga.

It has rained every day this week and the roads are in a perfect lullaby. The ground is thoroughly wet down a depth of many inches.

J. C. Collierworth, of Bethel Ridge, was here Friday exchanging yarns with the boys. Mr. C. sold goods here for a number of years, but has retired to the quietude of farm life to spend his old days.

The Lexington district M. E. Conference met here Tuesday night and continued over Thursday night. Many ministers throughout the district and other strangers from a distance were present, and the way the parsons did paralyze chicken was a caution.

Mr. Thomas Branson, of this place, and Miss Laura B. Lanham were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on the 14th, at the home of the bride, three miles south of town. Mr. Branson is a promising young man and a hero and veteran of two wars, having offered his services to the country at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war by enlisting in the 6th U. S. Cavalry, when he was sent to Fort McPherson, Ga. Desirous of service in the Philippines, he effected a transfer to the 19th U. S. Infantry, where he saw hard service in Luzon and later on Panay and was given his discharge in the summer of '99 under the provision of G. O. 40. Mr. B. had enlisted in the 37th Inf. U. S. V., before being given his discharge and it was in the latter organization that he saw hard service in the La Laguna district of Central Luzon. The bride is a daughter of Robt. P. Lanham, is pretty and popular with her host of admirers, who wish this young couple long life and prosperity.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

London has contracted with the London Wagon Co. for electric lights.

J. R. Bailey, of Knox county, sold to C. E. Smith, of Lexington, $55,000 worth of white oak trees in his county.

George D. Nailor, aged 77, died of brain trouble in Garrard. He was an ex-Federal soldier and a man of means.

Mrs. James Lawrence, of Rockcastle, took 15 grains of blue vitriol in an attempt to take her life, but doctors saved her.

The administrator of Wm. Mounts who was killed while working for the L. & N., got $4,000 in the Rockcastle circuit court last week.

To get anything like a correct idea of the work that is going on in the Wayne oil fields one must travel over the road from Burnside to Monticello and see the large number of people, passengers and freight wagons that are passing over the road daily. Eighty-five teams spent the night at one point on the road recently.—Somerset Journal.

The Liberty folks have succeeded in depriving themselves of the early morning mail, which was carried through here at seven every day. A people who will ask to have a daily mail stopped and persist in having toll gates in the county, ought not to be allowed a mail any day in the week. What would they think of rural delivery down in that part of the world? If some one should suggest such an innovation, some of the moss-backs of that town would weight him down and toss him into the fish pool. I wouldn't mention it for a gusher, grading 100.—Dr. Alcorn in Advocate.

W. W. Wells, a barkeeper at Falmouth, commenced a few years ago taking creosote, by the recommendation of his doctors, for consumption. He has taken it so long and in such quantities that he has become so saturated with it that flies or mosquitoes will not bother him and if he stays in a room any length of time the flies will leave it. He has become so accustomed to it that he can take 60 drops at a dose. He is a wonder to the medical profession.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hooker, druggists.

LANCASTER.

Mrs. J. N. Denny entertained Friday night in honor of her niece, Miss Margaret Beattie, of Clorinda, Iowa.

Dr. J. M. Frazee is the guest of Mr. E. C. Jennings, and he is again a candidate for commissioner of agriculture.

J. W. Wilmore bought of J. A. Robinson his handsome residence on Danville Avenue for $5,500. Mr. Robinson also sold 60 acres of land at $60 to W. R. Cook.

The continued wet weather has done considerable damage to the hemp crop. Thomas Walker has 25 acres down and it is rotting so badly that he will lose the entire lot.

The friends of Senator Farris are not at all discouraged by the nomination of Mr. Cochran, of Casey, by the republicans, as they expected to win, no matter who was nominated.

Arch, the old buggy horse of Mrs. Fannie Farra, died and was buried Saturday. Although no procession followed the faithful creature to his last resting place, he will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Clell Johnston gave a delightful house party last week. The guests were Mrs. Betsy Johnston and son, Stuart, of Shenandoah, Iowa, Miss Nelle Johnston and visitor Miss Grace Hirschberger, Mrs. M. Belle Burnside and daughter, Miss Willie Belle.

Miss Hare, of Jessamine, and Miss Della Herberger, of Independence, Mo., are visiting Mrs. Clell Johnston. Miss Hattie Jones, of Buckeye, spent a week with Mrs. Davis at Nicholasville. Mrs. Johnston and son, Stuart, of Iowa, have been with the former's father, Mr. T. M. Johnston for the past six weeks. They expect to return to their Western home the 20th.

Miss Grace Hirschberger, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who has been the guest of Miss Nelle Johnston for the past month, leaves for her home in a few days. Mrs. C. D. Powell was called by telephone to Mt. Vernon to attend the bedside of her sister, Mrs. W. T. Short, who at this writing, is no better. Mrs. Pattie Hayes and children, of Stanford, are with relatives here. Mrs. James Beazley is quite sick.

Eld. Jesse Walden, age 69, died of pneumonia near Cartersville, on Saturday evening. He had gone to that place to preach one week before his death, when he became ill and never recovered sufficiently to return home. He was well-known throughout Central Kentucky, having been a minister of the gospel for many years. He had been an elder in the Christian church here for a long time and he will be missed by that congregation and many relatives and friends. The funeral is being preached this (Monday) afternoon by Elder A. R. Moore. Burial will take place in Lancaster cemetery.

The INTERIOR JOURNAL was represented at the drawing when $400 was given in prizes at the opera house Saturday afternoon by the following wide awake merchants of Lancaster: Logan Dry Goods Co., H. M. Ballou & Co., F. P. Frisbie, W. J. Romans & Co., J. R. Haseiden, J. A. Beazley, J. C. Thompson and Miss Sallie Tillett. The house was crowded and Miss Willie Belle Burnside presided at the piano. The following committee was selected to conduct the drawing: R. Kinnaird, M. F. Rout, James Thompson, Crit Eubanks, Charles Mitchell and William Gooch. They selected Shirley Hudson to draw tickets from a large can in which 20,000, which had been given to induce trade, were placed. One hundred and fifty-four were drawn and that many prizes awarded in cash. Wiley Dishon drew $50, J. E. Allen, $25, Benton Ashley $15 and the others were distributed among the people in different sections of the country. J. M. Logan, manager of the Logan Dry Goods Co., and promoter of the scheme, delivered an address in which he explained how the merchants had raised the fund by buying tickets to be given to customers. He said that the object was to induce people who went elsewhere, to come to Lancaster to buy goods; that our merchants have as good stocks of goods as other towns, and that it worked like a charm, as Lancaster enjoys more commercial activity than she did a year ago. He further stated that goods are now sold at a less profit, which is for the public good.
